DENNY HOSKINS, CPA
SECRETARY OF STATE
STATE OF MISSOURI

Dear Fellow Missourians,

As your Secretary of State, I am proud to present this year's Missouri Roster—a valuable resource designed to help you connect with Missouri's elected officials at the county, state, and federal levels.

Inside, you'll find up-to-date contact information for public officials across our state, along with details about personnel in the executive branch, members of the General Assembly, and our judicial system. This edition also includes the latest municipal classifications and the certified results of the 2024 general election.

The strength of our democracy depends on active engagement, open dialogue, and mutual respect. By working together—through honest conversation and civil debate—we can set a powerful example for future generations.

I encourage you to take an active role in your government, reach out to your representatives, and make your voice heard. Your participation matters.

Sincerely,

Denny Hoskins

Office of Governor

The chief executive officer of the state of Missouri must be at least 30 years old, a U.S. citizen for 15 years or longer and a resident of Missouri for at least 10 years before being elected governor.

The governor is elected to a four-year term during the same year as a presidential election and may seek re-election to a second four-year term. No person may hold the office for more than two terms.

The governor appoints the members of all boards and commissions, the heads of all departments in state government and all vacancies in public offices unless otherwise provided by law. The board members of Missouri's state universities and colleges are appointed by the governor. The governor also selects the members of the Supreme and Appellate Courts of Missouri from names submitted by the State Judicial Commissions. He appoints members to the state's six Boards of Election Commissioners, Board of Police Commissioners, and the Board of Probation and Parole. Most appointments require the advice and consent of the

Governor Mike Kehoe

Senate. The governor addresses the General Assembly on the state of government and recommends changes. He submits a budget to the General Assembly within 30 days after the assembly convenes.

Office of Lieutenant Governor

The lieutenant governor of the state of Missouri must be at least 30 years old, a citizen of the United States for at least 15 years, and a resident of Missouri for at least 10 years before being elected to this office.

The lieutenant governor is elected for a four year term and is subject to re-election.

The Missouri Constitution states that the lieutenant governor shall serve as the ex officio president of the Missouri Senate. In addition, upon the death, conviction, impeachment, resignation, absence from the state or other disabilities of the governor, the lieutenant governor shall act as governor. By law, the lieutenant governor is a member of the Board of Public Buildings, the Board of Fund Commissioners, the Missouri Development Finance Board, the Missouri Housing Development Commission, the Missouri Tourism Commission, the Missouri State Capitol Commission, and the Missouri Community Service Commission. The lieutenant governor serves as the formal advocate of Missouri's senior citizens and informal governmental advocate for veterans. The lieutenant governor oversees the Missouri Arts Council and the state's Buy Missouri program, an economic development initiative that actively promotes Missouri manufacturers and businesses. The office of the lieutenant governor is a clearinghouse for citizen questions regarding state government.

Office of Secretary of State

The Office of the Secretary of State has more than 200 employees serving divisions including: administrative rules, business services, elections, publications, archives, securities and the state library.

As the state’s chief election authority, the office oversees federal and state elections, provides guidance to local election authorities and maintains and secures the Missouri Centralized Voter Registration system.

The Business Services Division handles the creation and maintenance of over a million business registrations. The division also handles notaries and commissions, UCC and the Safe at Home address confidentiality program.

Through the Securities Division, the office is responsible for ensuring compliance with state securities law and protecting Missouri investors.

The State Archives manages both current and historical records and is frequently used by Missourians for genealogical research. Millions of images are scanned each year for public access. The State

Secretary of State Denny Hoskins, CPA

Library promotes the development and improvement of libraries across Missouri and houses the Woflner Talking Book and Braille Library.

Additionally, the Administrative Rules division publishes regulations for all state agencies made available in the Missouri Register and Code of State Regulations.

Office of State Auditor

The Missouri State Auditor's Office is Missouri's independent watchdog agency, charged with protecting taxpayer dollars from waste, fraud, and abuse. Audits are conducted in an impartial, nonpartisan manner in accordance with government auditing standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States.

The State Auditor has authority to audit state entities, including departments, boards, commissions, statewide offices, and the General Assembly. The office is charged with auditing the state's expenditure of state and federal funds to ensure they are spent efficiently and in accordance with the law. In addition to state entities, the office has the authority to audit courts, school districts, certain counties, or upon petition or following an investigation of credible allegations of improper governmental activity, municipalities and other taxing or political subdivisions.

The office reviews property tax rates set by local political subdivisions and drafts fiscal notes and fiscal note summaries for initiative petitions. The office registers general obligation bonds issued by political subdivisions of the state to ensure compliance with state law.

State Auditor Scott Fitzpatrick

The office maintains a Whistleblower Hotline for citizens to report suspected waste, fraud, or abuse at any level of government.

The powers of the State Auditor are derived from Article IV, Section 13 of the Missouri Constitution. Statutory authority and duties are primarily detailed in Chapter 29 of the Revised Statutes of Missouri.

Office of State Treasurer

State Treasurer Vivek Malek is Missouri's chief banking and investment officer. The state treasurer directs the state's banking services and oversees Missouri's state investment portfolio. Treasurer Malek safeguards over $1 billion of unclaimed property entrusted to the state. He also administers multiple programs, including the Education Savings Plan (MOST 529), the Missouri Empowerment Scholarship Accounts Program (MO Scholars), the Missouri Achieving a Better Life Experience Program (MO ABLE), and the linked deposit program for small businesses and farmers (MO BUCK$).

Treasurer Malek also serves on the governing boards of several public bodies: the Missouri Housing Development Commission (MHDC), which authorizes quality affordable housing for Missourians; the Missouri State Employees' Retirement System (MOSERS), which administers retirement, life insurance, and long-term disability ben-

Office of Attorney General

The attorney general’s office represents the state’s legal position at every level of trial and appellate courts. The attorney general prosecutes and defends cases to which the state is a party, including every felony criminal case appealed to the Missouri or United States Supreme Courts and state and federal courts of appeal.

The attorney general is at the forefront of legal and policy decisions in the state of Missouri directing all litigation to which the state or any state agency or official is a party. He also serves as legal advocate for the public interest.

The attorney general’s office is organized into two departments: Civil Litigation and Criminal Litigation. Within those two departments, the office has nine divisions: Consumer Protection, Public Protection, Litigation, Labor, Criminal Appeals, Employment Litigation, Financial Services, Governmental Affairs, and the Medicaid Fraud Control Unit.

In addition to representing the state’s legal position, the attorney general’s office plays a role in protecting Missouri consumers, fighting violent crime, combating human trafficking, rooting out fraud by Medicaid providers and more.

Attorney General Andrew Bailey

The attorney general’s office has offices in Jefferson City, St. Louis, Kansas City, Springfield and Cape Girardeau.

Executive Departments

Government exists to serve, and a broad network of government organizations has been created to accomplish that purpose. The Missouri Constitution (Article II, Section 1) states: “The powers of government shall be divided into three distinct departments—the legislative, executive and judicial.” This section also prohibits persons within each branch from exercising powers of the other branches. From these three branches spring the variety of organizations which deliver services of state government.

The many different names used by these groups—departments, divisions, agencies, boards, commissions, bureaus, units, sections, programs and others—can make it difficult to determine which area of government is responsible for certain services, and difficult to sort out responsibilities or relationships within the governmental framework.

It is through the executive branch that the greatest proportion of state services are delivered. The constitution (Article IV, Section 12*) and the Reorganization Act of 1974 have established a number of “executive departments” to deal with specific areas of responsibility. A chart showing the present state departments is shown on the following page.

Within each executive department exists a variety of offices of varying size and scope which deal with specific services. Traditionally, “divisions” are the next-largest organizations within departments and function to bring together smaller-sized groups, such as “bureaus,” “sections” or “units.” Divisions may be governed by a “board” or “commission” composed of members who are either appointed by the governor, statewide office holder or the leaders of the General Assembly as designated by State Statute. State agencies may administer certain sections of state law as defined by the Revised Statutes of Missouri, may develop their own rules and regulations as promulgated in the Missouri Register and Code of State Regulations or may institute programs and policies which address the needs of their areas of service.

Article IV, Section 12. Executive department, composition of—elective officials—departments and offices enumerated.—The executive department shall consist of all state elective and appointive officials and employees except officials and employees of the legislative and judicial departments. In addition to the governor and lieutenant governor there shall be a state auditor, secretary of state, attorney general, a state treasurer, an office of administration, a department of agriculture, a department of conservation, a department of natural resources, a department of elementary and secondary education, a department of higher education, a department of highways and transportation, a department of insurance, a department of labor and industrial relations, a department of economic development, a department of public safety, a department of revenue, a department of social services, a department of the National Guard and a department of mental health. In addition to the elected officers, there shall not be more than sixteen departments and the office of administration. The general assembly may create by law two departments, in addition to those named, provided that the departments shall be headed by a director or commission appointed by the governor on the advice and consent of the senate. The director or commission shall have administrative responsibility and authority for the department created by law. Unless discontinued all present or future boards, bureaus, commissions and other agencies of the state exercising administrative or executive authority shall be assigned by law or by the governor as provided by law to the office of administration or to one of the sixteen administrative departments to which their respective powers and duties are germane.

The Office of Administration serves as the administrative and managerial arm of State of Missouri government. Created by the General Assembly on Jan. 15, 1973, the Office of Administration combines and coordinates the central management functions of state government to help departments operate efficiently and effectively. The Commissioner of Administration is appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. The Commissioner appoints the Deputy Commissioner/General Counsel and the directors of the seven divisions within the department. The Commissioner serves as the Chief Administrative Officer with oversight for the divisions and various programs, boards, and commissions.

Like Missouri agriculture, the duties of the Missouri Department of Agriculture are diverse. The department enforces those state laws that regulate and market Missouri’s agricultural industry. The agency administers programs that protect the state’s producers, processors, distributors and consumers of food, fuel and fiber, while marketing Missouri agricultural products at home and abroad.

The Department of Agriculture is managed by a director who is appointed by the governor and confirmed by the Senate. The director determines department policy, oversees the department’s divisions and disseminates information to the governor, the state legislature, industry representatives and the public.

DCI is organized into the director's office and nine divisions:

Insurance Consumer Affairs Division

- Acts as a liaison between the consumer and the insurance industry by receiving complaints against insurance companies, insurance producers (agents), and other licensees.
- Investigates complaints to ensure consumers are being treated fairly under the law.
- Conducts education and outreach to Missouri consumers about insurance topics.

Insurance Market Regulation Division

- Reviews insurance policy forms and materials to ensure compliance with Missouri laws and regulations.
- Conducts market analysis, market conduct investigations and market conduct examinations of insurance companies to protect policy holders and ensure laws are followed.
- Monitors Missouri's insurance market through the collection and compilation of industry financial and claim data.

Insurance Company Regulation Division

- Monitors and analyzes the financial solvency of insurance companies licensed in Missouri to ensure consumer claims can be paid.
- Licenses and regulates captive insurance companies, authorized reinsurance companies and other insurance-related entities.
- Reviews all premium tax, surplus lines tax and captive premium tax filings.

Administration Division

- Provides general operational support within DCI including preparation of DCI's annual budget, fiscal management of state insurance funds and federal grants, oversight of human resources and information technology coordination.
- Licenses insurance producers (agents and agencies) operating within Missouri as well as licenses and registers various other insurance-related entities.
- Oversees the MO SHIP program, which provides free counseling for Missouri Medicare recipients and their caregivers.
- Responsible for the department's Operational Excellence program.

Division of Credit Unions

- Examines and oversees Missouri's 83 state-chartered credit unions to ensure they maintain safe and sound operations, as well as compliance with applicable laws in order to safeguard consumer deposits and preserve consumer confidence.
- Responds to consumer complaints concerning credit union services or operations.

Division of Finance

- Examines and oversees Missouri’s 197 state-chartered banks, non-deposit trust companies and savings and loan associations to ensure their safety and soundness so consumers’ deposits are safe, and the public is confident in Missouri’s financial system.
- Licenses and regulates consumer credit companies, credit services organizations, money order companies, mortgage broker companies and mortgage loan originators.

Division of Professional Registration

- Supports 41 professional licensing boards and commissions in licensing and regulating the activities of Missouri professionals.
- The boards and commissions process applications, administer examinations and, when warranted, conduct investigations into possible professional misconduct and may take disciplinary action against the practitioner.

Public Service Commission

- Independently governed commission that regulates investor-owned electric, natural gas, steam, water and sewer utilities in Missouri.

Office of the Public Counsel

- Represents the public and the interests of utility customers in proceedings before the Missouri Public Service Commission. Provides guidance to landowners regarding eminent domain and the condemnation process and procedures.

Department of Conservation

 mdc.mo.gov

The Department of Conservation, authorized in 1937 by an initiative process and statewide vote to amend the Missouri Constitution, was created by public demand for better management of the state's fish, forest and wildlife resources. The department is headed by the Conservation Commission, whose four members, no more than two of whom may belong to the same political party, are appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. They serve without compensation for staggered six-year terms.

The commissioners appoint the department director who, along with three deputy directors, directs programs and activities through the branches of communications, community & private lands, business services, education, human resources, information technology, infrastructure management, protection, regional resource management, relevancy, science and statewide resource management. The department's principal sources of revenue are receipts from the sale of hunting and fishing permits and the one-eighth of one percent conservation sales tax. Funds are also received, primarily on a matching basis, from federal aid provisions of the Wildlife Restoration, Sport Fish Restoration and Cooperative Forestry Assistance Acts. The department receives no state general revenue funds.

Department of Corrections

PO Box 236, Jefferson City 65102

doc.mo.gov

The Missouri Department of Corrections manages the care, custody and supervision of Missourians sentenced to state prison or community supervision following felony convictions. The agency's 10,000 employees oversee approximately 24,000 people incarcerated in 19 adult institutions as well as 52,000 people on probation or parole.

The department promotes sober, responsible, productive and prosocial behavior. It fosters rehabilitation, treatment, education and job training to equip Missourians involved in the criminal justice system with the skills and resources they need to contribute to their communities, inside and outside prison walls. More than 96% of people who enter the state's prison system ultimately are released. The Department of Corrections aims to make sure they're good neighbors.

The department strives to carry out sentences set by the court and the Parole Board in ways that promote public safety while ensuring the best return on investment of staff time, state resources and taxpayer dollars. Corrections staff, contracted staff and community partners work together to return Missourians to their families and homes better equipped for success than they were when they entered state custody. With the goal of reducing risk and recidivism, the department implements results-oriented policies and evidence-based practices tailored to addressing the specific needs and strengths of each offender. Department-wide use of a validated risk and needs assessment tool is buoyed by a system of incentives and sanctions designed to reinforce positive behaviors while encouraging accountability for negative behaviors. The department employs strategic planning at all levels of the organization to promote continuous improvement.

Department of Elementary and Secondary Education

dese.mo.gov

The Department of Elementary and Secondary Education is primarily a service agency that works with local school officials, legislators, government agencies, community leaders and citizens to maintain a strong public education system. Through its statewide school improvement initiatives and its regulatory functions, the department strives to ensure all citizens have access to high-quality public education. Under the direction of the State Board of Education, the department is organized with the offices of commissioner of education, and two divisions—Learning Services and Financial and Administrative Services.

The State Board of Education is a lay board consisting of eight members appointed by the governor and confirmed by the Senate. It is vested with the responsibility for the supervision of the public school system in this state and establishes policy in accordance with state and federal law for the department. The board appoints a commissioner of education who serves as chief administrative and executive officer of the department. The commissioner, along with department staff, interprets and implements policies established by the board.

Department of Higher Education & Workforce Development

Harry S Truman State Office Bldg., 301 W. High St., Jefferson City 65101
dhewd.mo.gov

The Missouri Department of Higher Education & Workforce Development (MDHEWD) develops, coordinates, and implements a plan that outlines how the state's postsecondary education system and public workforce system can most effectively and efficiently provide higher education to students and meet the state's workforce needs. Realigning postsecondary education with the public workforce system gives Missourians the full breadth of options available to fit their interests, resources, and abilities.

The primary functions of the department include statewide planning for postsecondary education and the public workforce system to effectively and efficiently meet the state's workforce needs, evaluation of student and institutional performance, identification of statewide needs for higher education, development of effective and economical specialization among institutions, submission of a unified budget request for public higher education to the governor and the Missouri General Assembly, review and enhancement of institutional missions, and approval of new degree programs offered at the state's public colleges and universities. In addition, the department administers 10 student financial aid programs and the proprietary school certification program.

MDHEWD reports to two boards:

- The Coordinating Board for Higher Education (CBHE) is MDHEWD's authorizing board. The nine-member CBHE hires the commissioner, approves a statewide strategic plan, and guides the department's work. Board members are appointed by the governor, confirmed by the Senate, and represent each Missouri congressional district plus one at-large member. The board members serve six-year terms and no more than five of the nine members may be affiliated with the same political party.
- The State Workforce Development Board (SWDB) guides the public workforce development system. The 28-member SWDB sets workforce policy for Missouri's local workforce areas and guides state and federal employment and training programs. The board serves as a convener of state, regional, and local workforce system partners to help integrate and align a more effective job-driven workforce development system that invests in the connection between education and career preparation.

The CBHE employs a commissioner of higher education to carry out its goals and administrative responsibilities. Missouri's higher education system includes 13 public universities, 12 public colleges, one public two-year technical college, one two-year campus of a public university, 24 independent institutions, 19 theological schools, 11 specialized/technical colleges and approximately 180 proprietary schools.

421 E. Dunklin St., Jefferson City 65102-0504, (573) 751-4091, FAX (573) 751-4135
labor.mo.gov

The Missouri Department of Labor and Industrial Relations is responsible for administering programs that: provide an income for workers to offset the loss of a job due to an injury or layoff; conduct employee representation elections for public bodies; regulate minimum wage and wages for public works and construction projects; promote safe working environments; enforce Missouri's anti-discrimination statutes and protect Missouri citizens in the areas of housing, employment and public accommodations.

Agencies operating within the department are: Labor and Industrial Relations Commission; State Board of Mediation; Division of Employment Security; Division of Workers' Compensation; Division of Labor Standards and Missouri Commission on Human Rights.

The Labor Commission consists of three members, appointed by the governor and confirmed by the Senate. As part of their duties, the commission hears appeals from all decisions and awards in workers' compensation and unemployment compensation, makes determinations in prevailing wage and victims of crime compensation cases and determines an appropriate bargaining unit of public employees.

The director of the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations is nominated by the commission and appointed by the governor, subject to the advice and consent of the Senate, to be the chief administrative officer of the department.

Department of Mental Health

1706 E. Elm St., PO Box 687, Jefferson City 65102
dmh.mo.gov

The mission of the Department of Mental Health is serving, empowering and supporting Missourians to live their best lives. In statute, the department is to prevent mental disorders, developmental disabilities and substance misuse; to treat, habilitate and rehabilitate Missourians who suffer from those conditions; and to improve public understanding and attitudes about mental disorders, developmental disabilities and substance use.

The principal policy advisor to the department is the seven-member Mental Health Commission, a citizen commission that appoints the director with the confirmation of the Senate. The director is responsible for overall operations of the department, its three operating divisions, support offices, facilities and central office.

The Missouri Department of Natural Resources protects our air, land, water and mineral resources; preserves our unique natural and historic places; and provides recreational and learning opportunities, while promoting the environmentally sound and energy-efficient operations of businesses, communities, agriculture and industry for the benefit of all Missourians. The agency accomplishes this work through the Division of Administrative Support, Division of Environmental Quality, Division of Energy, Missouri Geological Survey and Missouri State Parks. A number of boards and commissions also support and facilitate the department's roles and responsibilities.

The director of the Department of Natural Resources is appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate. The director oversees the department and serves as a liaison for joint efforts with other governmental agencies and with private organizations involved in natural resource management in Missouri.

The Department of Public Safety is responsible for coordinating all elements of law enforcement, criminal investigation and public safety activities undertaken by state government, the ultimate goal being to ensure the safety and security of Missouri's citizens and their property. This is accomplished through the activities of the Missouri Veterans' Commission; Division of Alcohol and Tobacco Control; Division of Fire Safety; Missouri State Highway Patrol; Missouri Capitol Police; Missouri Gaming Commission; and the State Emergency Management Agency. The department is responsible for 4,600 employees and a budget of more than $900 million.

The department is under the coordination of a director, appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the Senate.

The Department of Revenue is one of the largest and most comprehensive of Missouri's state departments. The Department collects state and local taxes and administers the state's motor vehicle and driver licensing laws, including the titling and registration of motor vehicles and the licensing of Missouri drivers.

The director, appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate, is responsible for all operations and policies of the Department.

The Department is comprised of four divisions: Administration, General Counsel, Taxation, and Motor Vehicle and Driver Licensing. The Administration Division provides professional and efficient personnel, financial and general service support that allows the Department's divisions to carry out their core responsibilities. The other divisions are contacted more frequently by Missouri citizens and elected officials, and those divisions' detailed phone numbers are listed below. The goal of all Department team members is to provide every customer the best experience every time.

The Missouri Department of Social Services was established because “the health and general welfare of the people are matters of primary public concern.” The department is charged with administering programs to promote, safeguard, and protect the general welfare of children; to maintain and strengthen family life; and to aid people in need as they strive to achieve their highest level of independence.

The department is organized into four program divisions: Children’s Division, Family Support Division, MO HealthNet Division, and the Division of Youth Services. The Divisions of Finance and Administrative Services and Legal Services provide department-wide administrative and support services.

The department cooperates and partners with many private organizations, businesses, and individuals to extend the outreach of human services to Missouri citizens.

The Department of Transportation is responsible for Missouri's total transportation system: highways and bridges (including bicycle and pedestrian accommodations), aviation, waterways, transit and railroads. Operation of the 34,000-mile highway system includes highway location, design, construction and maintenance.

The Missouri Highways and Transportation Commission, composed of six members, is the governing body of the department. The members are appointed by the governor, with the consent of the Senate.

The director and secretary are appointed by the commission. All other appointments are made by the director, with approval of the commission.

Missouri Courts

Missouri has a three-tier court system. Article V of the Missouri Constitution, as amended by Missouri voters in 1976, vests the judicial power in the Supreme Court of Missouri, the state’s highest court with statewide jurisdiction; in the Missouri Court of Appeals, consisting of geographic districts established by the General Assembly; and in a system of circuit courts with original jurisdiction over all cases and matters, civil and criminal, within the circuit.

The Supreme Court and Court of Appeals have general superintending control over all courts and tribunals within their jurisdictions. Original remedial writs may be issued and determined by the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals. Decisions of the Supreme Court are controlling in all other courts. Under article V, section 25 of the Missouri Constitution, the judges of the Supreme Court of Missouri and Missouri Court of Appeals are nonpartisan and are prohibited from participating in political activities. Circuit and associate circuit judges in the 6th, 7th, 16th, 21st, 22nd and 31st circuits are also nonpartisan under article V, section 25 of the Missouri Constitution and are also prohibited from participating in political activities. All other trial judges are elected in partisan elections.

The circuit courts may be organized into divisions, including circuit, associate, juvenile, family and probate. Circuit judges may hear and determine all cases and matters within the jurisdiction of the circuit court.

The number of circuit judges is determined by the General Assembly. The Constitution requires at least one circuit judge in each of Missouri’s 46 judicial circuits.

Associate circuit judges may hear those types of civil and criminal matters specified in chapters 472, 476, 478 and 482 of the Revised Statutes of Missouri. By agreement of the parties, by assignment of the circuit’s presiding judge or by local court rule, associate circuit judges may hear any matter pending in the circuit court. Associate circuit judges may hear any case upon assignment by the Supreme Court. The Constitution requires at least one resident associate circuit judge in each county.

Classification of Municipalities

Missouri statutes classify municipalities on the basis of population and limit the form of government options of each classification. The statutes provide that a community may incorporate as a city of the third class, fourth class or village on the basis of the population at the time of incorporation¹. Once a community is incorporated under a given classification, the municipality does not automatically change classification with a gain or loss of population. A municipality may change classification only when the change is approved by a majority vote of the people.

There are certain forms of government permitted for each classification of municipality. Villages are permitted only one form of government—an elected board of trustees, five in number if the village has less than 2,500 population and nine if more than 2,500 population. Fourth-class cities are permitted to have either a mayor/board of aldermen form or a mayor/city administrator/aldermen form. The board of aldermen may adopt a city administrator form by ordinance, without a vote of the people. Third-class cities are granted greater flexibility with the authority to establish a mayor/council form, a council/manager form, a commission form or a mayor/city administrator/council form. Finally, constitutional charter cities may adopt any form of government that the people approve in the charter.

¹From 1821 to 1875, the Missouri General Assembly passed special charters for specific cities, until the 1875 Constitution prohibited further granting and amending of special charters. However, seven Missouri municipalities are still operating under special charters granted before 1875. They are Augusta, Carrollton, Chillicothe, La Grange, Liberty, Miami and Pleasant Hill. If the voters of these municipalities decide to relinquish their special charters, they will be governed by the appropriate sections of the statutes relevant to their population classification.

Class	Population Requirement	Form of Government
Village	less than 500	Board of trustees
4th Class	500-2,999	Mayor/board of aldermen Mayor/city administrator/alderman
3rd Class	3,000-29,999	Mayor/council Mayor/city administrator/council Council/Manager Commission
Constitutional Charter / Home Rule	more than 5,000	To be decided by the people
Special Charter	no requirement	As set forth in the individual special charter

Constitutional Amendment No. 2

[Proposed by Initiative Petition]

Do you want to amend the Missouri Constitution to:

- allow the Missouri Gaming Commission to regulate licensed sports wagering including online sports betting, gambling boats, professional sports betting districts and mobile licenses to sports betting operators;
- restrict sports betting to individuals physically located in the state and over the age of 21;
- allow license fees prescribed by the Commission and a 10% wagering tax on revenues received to be appropriated for education after expenses incurred by the Commission and required funding of the Compulsive Gambling Prevention Fund; and
- allow for the general assembly to enact laws consistent with this amendment?

State governmental entities estimate onetime costs of $660,000, ongoing annual costs of at least $5.2 million, and initial license fee revenue of $11.75 million. Because the proposal allows for deductions against sports gaming revenues, they estimate unknown tax revenue ranging from $0 to $28.9 million annually. Local governments estimate unknown revenue.

Constitutional Amendment No. 3

[Proposed by Initiative Petition]

Do you want to amend the Missouri Constitution to:

- establish a right to make decisions about reproductive health care, including abortion and contraceptives, with any governmental interference of that right presumed invalid;
- remove Missouri's ban on abortion;
- allow regulation of reproductive health care to improve or maintain the health of the patient;
- require the government not to discriminate, in government programs, funding, and other activities, against persons providing or obtaining reproductive health care; and
- allow abortion to be restricted or banned after Fetal Viability except to protect the life or health of the woman?

State governmental entities estimate no costs or savings, but unknown impact. Local governmental entities estimate costs of at least $51,000 annually in reduced tax revenues. Opponents estimate a potentially significant loss to state revenue.

Constitutional Amendment No. 5

[Proposed by Initiative Petition]

Do you want to amend the Missouri Constitution to:

- allow the Missouri Gaming Commission to issue one additional gambling boat license to operate on the portion of the Osage River from the Missouri River to the Bagnell Dam;
- require the prescribed location shall include artificial spaces that contain water and are within 500 feet of the 100-year base flood elevation as established by the Federal Emergency Management Agency; and
- require all state revenues derived from the issuance of the gambling boat license shall be appropriated to early-childhood literacy programs in public institutions of elementary education?

State governmental entities estimate one-time costs of $763,000, ongoing costs of $2.2 million annually, initial fee revenue of $271,000, ongoing admission and other fee revenue of $2.1 million annually, and annual gaming tax revenue of $14.3 million. Local governments estimate unknown revenue.

Constitutional Amendment No. 6

*[Proposed by 102nd General Assembly]
(Second Regular Session) SS SCS SJR 71*

Shall the Missouri Constitution be amended to provide that the administration of justice shall include the levying of costs and fees to support salaries and benefits for certain current and former law enforcement personnel?

State and local governmental entities estimate an unknown fiscal impact.

Constitutional Amendment No. 7

*[Proposed by 102nd General Assembly]
(Second Regular Session) SS SJR 78*

Shall the Missouri Constitution be amended to:

- Make the Constitution consistent with state law by only allowing citizens of the United States to vote;
- Prohibit the ranking of candidates by limiting voters to a single vote per candidate or issue; and

- Require the plurality winner of a political party primary to be the single candidate at a general election?

State and local governmental entities estimate no costs or savings.

Proposition A

[Proposed by Initiative Petition]

Do you want to amend Missouri law to:

- increase minimum wage January 1, 2025 to $13.75 per hour, increasing $1.25 per hour each year until 2026, when the minimum wage would be $15.00 per hour;
- adjust minimum wage based on changes in the Consumer Price Index each January beginning in 2027;

- require all employers to provide one hour of paid sick leave for every thirty hours worked;
- allow the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations to provide oversight and enforcement; and
- exempt governmental entities, political subdivisions, school districts and education institutions?

State governmental entities estimate one-time costs ranging from $0 to $53,000, and ongoing costs ranging from $0 to at least $256,000 per year by 2027. State and local government tax revenue could change by an unknown annual amount depending on business decisions.

Missouri Voting and Elections

Who registers to vote in Missouri?

Citizens living in Missouri must register in order to vote. Any U.S. citizen 17 years and 6 months of age or older, if a Missouri resident, may register and vote except:

- A person who is adjudged incapacitated.

- A person who is confined under sentence of imprisonment.

- A person who is on probation or parole after conviction of a felony until finally discharged.

- A person who has been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor connected with the right of suffrage. (115.133, RSMo)

How do Missourians register?

Qualified citizens may register at sos.mo.gov/elections/govotemissouri/register, in person at the office of their local election authority, by mail, at the driver's license fee office or at participating state agencies. Registration in person is accomplished by filling out registration forms with information on identity, residence and qualifications which are signed and sworn to, then witnessed by the election authority or a designee. (115.155, RSMo)

Registration by mail, at the driver's license fee office or at the participating state agencies requires submission of an application stating qualifications. A verification or rejection of registration is sent by the election authority within seven working days. (115.155 and 115.159, RSMo)

When do Missourians register?

An unregistered citizen may register to vote at sos.mo.gov/elections/govotemissouri/register, at the local election officials' place of business, by requesting an application by mail from the election authority, when renewing a Missouri driver's license or when receiving services from a participating state agency. Special registration sites and dates may be utilized prior to major elections.

The deadline for registration is the fourth Wednesday prior to an election. New Missouri residents may register immediately. (115.135, RSMo).

When do Missourians vote?

The statutes require that all public elections be held on the general election day, the primary election day, the general municipal election day, the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, or on another day expressly provided by city or county charter and in nonprimary years on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in August. (115.123.1, RSMo)

The general election day is the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in even-numbered years. The primary election day is the first Tuesday after the first Monday in August in even-numbered years. (115.121 (1 & 2), RSMo)

Elections for cities, towns, villages, school boards and special district officers are held the first Tuesday after first Monday in April each year, known as the "general municipal election day." (115.121.3, RSMo)

Additional elections such as special elections or run off elections could also be held for voters.

Who conducts registration and elections?

Voter registration and the conduct of elections are the responsibilities of boards of election commissioners in the counties of Clay, Jackson, Platte and St. Louis; and in the cities of Kansas City and St. Louis; and of the election authority in St. Charles County. The county clerk serves as the election authority in all other counties of the state.

Special voting provisions

Disabled voters and persons prevented from voting at the polls because of absence or illness may vote absentee. Persons with permanent disabilities may apply for permanent absentee ballot status by making application with the local election authority. (115.284, RSMo) Curbside voting is permitted in Missouri, or voters may be transferred to more accessible precincts. Local election officials should be contacted about absentee federal service balloting or "new resident" ballots for residents who arrive after the registration deadline.

What forms of identification are acceptable?

Show your valid Missouri Driver License, Missouri Nondriver License, United States Passport or Military ID.

If you do not possess any of these forms of identification, but are a registered voter, you may cast a provisional ballot.

More information about the voter ID requirement is available online at www.sos.mo.gov/voterid. If you do not have an approved form of identification from above, the Secretary of State's Office will help you obtain the documents needed for a free photo ID (Missouri Nondriver License). Any questions may be directed to 866-868-3245. (115.427, RSMo)

Elections and political parties

Missourians do not have to register under party affiliation. Hence, at primary elections, voters can choose which "established party" they vote within. Party nominees—and independent candidates—are then listed on the general election ballot.

There are presently three “established political parties” statewide—the Republican, Democratic and Libertarian parties. Persons may seek the nomination of these parties for any elective office from the county level and above. In order to become “established,” a party must have received more than two percent of the votes cast statewide for at least one of its candidates. New parties are formed by petition and may exist on the county, district or state level. They must meet the same standard as any other party to remain “established.”

At the time of primary elections, voters select county committee members of established parties in Missouri. Those committee people, thus elected, have certain duties and responsibilities. They serve, as appropriate, as members of legislative, senatorial, judicial and congressional district committees. County, district or state committee members may be called on to fill candidate vacancies on party ballots or to select nominees for special elections from time to time. The state committees are selected, indirectly, by local committee persons. The state committees become especially important when delegates to presidential nominating (national) conventions are being selected.
